FEDERAL PROBES OF VETS BUREAU FOLLOW CHARGES

Huge Quantities Of Drugs
And Narcotics "Disappear," Says Report.

BRIBERY CHARGES ALSO ARE PROBED

Graft Alleged In Hospital
Construction Being Investigated.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Two new federal investigations into operation of the United States veterans' bureau were seen today as a sequel to the sensational charges of graft and bribery brought against Col. Charles R. Forbes, former director, before a senate committee.

1.—The treasury department, through the internal revenue bureau, launched an inquiry into the whereabouts of $5,000,000 worth of drugs and narcotics stored by the bureau at Perryville, Md., during Forbes' administration. Huge quantities of these drugs are reported to have been disappearing in an "alibi" charge.

2.—The department of justice was alleged conspiracy to allot millions of dollars' worth of hospital construction work to a favored clique of contractors in return for a "split of the profits."

The senate committee's special staff of investigators, headed by Major General John F. O'Ryan, meanwhile was probing the bureau's records for trace of fraud and graft throughout the government's $17,000,000 hospital construction program. Evidence of seeming fraud has been unearthed, it was said, in the leasing of sites and award of construction contracts in a number of instances.

Drugs "Disappear"

The internal revenue bureau's investigation of the reported "disappearance" of drugs and narcotics from the medical supply store in Perryville, Md., was based on information given it by Gen. O'Ryan, the senate's special investigator, inventory of the stocks on hand at Perryville, it was said, does not agree with an inventory of stocks shipped there by the war department two years ago. Evidence already has been unearthed of conditions which showed at least gross negligence in the "loss" of these drugs. It was said literally "tons of narcotics" are missing.

The situation was touched upon by Elias H. Mortimer, of Philadelphia in his sensational testimony yesterday before the senate committee. Mortimer testified Forbes had asked him to "clean up a fortune" by helping to privately dispose of the government's supply of drugs at Perryville. A protracted investigation of alleged graft in hospital construction has been conducted by Gen. O'Ryan, it was learned. This information will be turned over to the department of justice for such action as the legal authorities determine.

FIND OHIO WOMAN BEATEN TO DEATH

Elvira, Oct. 25.—Mrs. Anna Hebrand, 79, living alone, was found brutally murdered here today. The slaying is attributed to robbers.

The victim put up a fierce battle before being rendered unconscious by a blow from a blunt instrument, probably a chair, which fractured her skull from the forehead to the base of the neck. The assailant made sure of her death for as the unconscious form lay on the floor marks about the neck indicated that death was hastened by choking.

MYSTERY IN DISAPPEARANCE OF BROKER

Mrs. May Drew Clark, Mrs. Sarah H. Schick, Everett Drew Clark and George E. Schick

Shortly after the San Diego (Cal.) police instituted a search for George F. Schick, immensely wealthy realty and investment broker, who was reported missing from his home, his wife, Mrs. Sarah M. Schick, presented what purported to be his power of attorney to take over his business. A police investigation led to her arrest, together with that of Everett Drew Clark, ostensibly on the charge of improper conduct before the Schick child, but in reality to hold them until it could be discovered whether Schick had been murdered. Clark, it is said, was living with Mrs. Schick, and his wife, Mrs. May Drew Clark, organist in a San Diego church, was aware of their relations and had frequently visited them. The police are digging into the vicinity of the Schick home for Schick's body.

CO-OPERATION PLEA MADE TO COOLIDGE BY LLOYD GEORGE

Assistance Of America In Settling World Problems Is Sought.

HOLDS CONFERENCE WITH THE CABINET

Hughes Reparations Plan
Praised By England's War-time Premier.

Washington, Oct. 25.—David Lloyd George, England's war-time premier, came to Washington today to visit the capital, see a few old friends, and, incidentally, to lay before President Coolidge and his administration leaders his oft-repeated appeal for the co-operation and active assistance of the United States in settling world problems.

His train reached the capital early this morning, but he did not leave it until shortly before 9 o'clock, when he emerged and drove down historic Pennsylvania avenue to the Willard hotel, where he will make his headquarters during his stay.

The appeal for American help abroad is not a new one. Lloyd George has sounded it frequently in his speeches in western cities, but today, growing and enthusiastic over the reception he has had on American soil, the little Welshman brought it "straight to headquarters."

He talked with President Coolidge and members of the cabinet at the White House at noon as a luncheon guest. It is a privilege accorded to few foreigners to be able to address the president and his cabinet at one sitting.

It is a coincidence, perhaps, that Lloyd George's visit to the White House follows so closely upon the administration's reiteration of its foreign policy by Ambassador Harvey in London, and at a time when the reparations problem has reached another of its crises.

Through Col. Harvey and Secretary of State Hughes, the American government has assured the world it is willing to help settle the reparations problem if invited. The Hughes' proposal is still before the chancellors of Europe.

Lloyd George already has spoken the praise of the Hughes' plan, and it will afford the basis for numerous conversations which the little Welshman will have in Washington during the next few days.

POWERFUL MANIAC STABS PASSENGERS

Train, Man Is Slain In Self-defense.

Trinidad, Col., Oct. 25.—A powerful maniac with a long bladed knife stabbed three passengers and the conductor of westbound Santa Fe train No. 7 near La Guenta today before other travelers overpowered and killed him.

The man drew his weapon shortly after the train left La Guenta where he had boarded it. First he flashed the blade and struck the shoulder of Conductor Dupler. Then he ran down the aisle, slashing right and left until passengers slew him in self-defense.

An increase in salary does not help unless he opens his own envelope.

GERMANY TORN BY STRIKES, BATTLES; MANY ARE KILLED

Communists Marching Upon
Berlin, Troops Rushed To Meet Them.

GENERAL STRIKE ORDER MODIFIED

Situation In Bavaria and Saxony Tense; Strike
Movement Grows.

All Germany was torn today by secession, communism, strikes and battles in which many were killed and wounded.

London received a report that communists were marching upon Berlin and that troops were being rushed to meet them.

Seven persons were killed in a battle at Aachen, when police attacked the separatists.

News from Germany indicated that the secessionist movement in the Rhineland had not made any progress but the French foreign office received word that the "Rhineland republic" was being extended and solidified.

Disorders have broken out in Berlin. Twenty-eight men are reported to have been shot in riots last week and that news of their deaths had been suppressed.

Harbor Tied Up

Hamburg harbor is completely tied up.

The communists in Berlin who proclaimed a general strike, later modified it to involve only the printers. Military authorities warned against any strikes.

The situation in Saxony and Bavaria continue tense, each side waiting for the other to make a move.

The strike movement in central Germany is growing. Nearly all the miners are armed.

British officials said they attached no importance to the action of the French in the Rhine palatinate, aiding the German secessionists to declare their autonomy.

Belin, Oct. 25.—Separatist disorders, in which many persons were killed and wounded, continued in western Germany today.

Violent fighting was reported from Aachen (Aix La Chapelle) where the original Rhineland republic was proclaimed. It was issued Sunday.

Secessionists have gained control at Creteil. The loyalists ran out of ammunition and could not continue the battle.

Berlin remains calm. The people are passive.

PREPARE EXHIBITS FOR 'LITTLE PLAY'

Salem's Dramatic Institute
Opens Tonight In Old Masonic Rooms.

Immediately upon his arrival in the city, Mr. Junkin went to his headquarters in the old Masonic temple over the Hemminger store where he has prepared exhibits of literature consisting of plays, pageants, one act productions and various forms of informative literature, dramatic, literary, drama and stage productions.

A complete makeup set, including every known accessory to character make up, a large quantity of free literature is on hand, providing valuable information.

Owing to church activities in the city Wednesday night the class will not be opened until Thursday night when all persons in the city, whether old or young, are invited to enroll in the institute, to meet regularly for three weeks, probably four nights a week.

OFFICER, ALONE IN HOUSE, ISN'T HURT BY BLAST

Second Bombing Here In Week Stirs County To Offer $500 Reward; Damage To M. E.
Church Is Estimated At $6,000.

For the second time in six days Salem was shaken by a terrific blast caused by a bomb that partially wrecked the home of Dr. S. E. Conrad, state prohibition agent, 61 Broadway, at 1:40 a. m. Thursday.

The bomb blew out the south side of the house, caused a large amount of damage at the Methodist church next door, and shattered windows in houses within a radius of a block.

Conrad, alone in the house, was thrown from his bed but not injured. He estimates the damage to the house at $2,000.

Damage to the First Methodist Episcopal church may reach $6,000, church officials stated Thursday.

Stirred by the activities of the lawless element, the county commissioners Thursday morning offered a reward of $500 for the arrest or any information leading to the arrest of the dynamiters.

An official investigation was started Thursday morning by Prosecuting Attorney Jesse Hanley.

The bomb, it is said to have contained dynamite, because of the odor that the explosive left, was placed under the cellar door in the southwest part of the basement. A hole had been drilled under the door and the explosive placed inside the building.

Dr. Conrad was asleep in the upstairs of the house when the blast rocked the building. In an instant the house was full of smoke and Conrad, who had been knocked out of bed by the force of the explosion, ran downstairs, turned on a light, and ran out the front door, but saw no one near the house.

Conrad was alone in the house at the time.

City Police, Constable Earl Ritchie and several neighbors were on the scene within ten minutes. A thorough investigation of that part of the city was made but no trace of the bombers could be found.

"After the explosion I rushed downstairs," said Conrad. The house was filled with a choking dynamite smell caused from what I immediately thought was a bomb, designed to take my life."

The floor and contents of the room on the first floor in the southwest part of the house were broken to bits. The main force of the bomb went straight up through the floor, through the bed and wrecked every article of furniture. Other rooms on the first part of the house were partially wrecked and the basement is a mass of wreckage.

On the second floor where Conrad was sleeping all the windows were blown out but no other damage was done.

On the first floor in addition to all windows being knocked out, the brick wall under which the bomb was placed, and the cellar door, were entirely destroyed. The total damage may reach $2,000.

23 Church Windows Broken

Twenty-nine windows in the Methodist church across the alley from the Conrad home, were broken, and some blown entirely out by the blast. But 12 feet away, the church received over half of the force of the dynamite.

At least 10 windows are valued at $500 each. They are the exquisitely stained glass windows put in at great expense and valued because of the fact that several of them are memorial windows, erected in memory of loved ones by members of the church.

The other windows were less expensive but some of them were valuable stained ones. Plaster was knocked off the walls of the church, and some damage was done inside. The total damage to the church property lot was damaged, all windows being may reach $6,000.

A house at the rear of the church knocked out and plaster fell from the ceilings of every room.

Twenty windows were blown out of the home of Dr. R. E. Smucker, across the street from the Conrad home. Twelve windows are out in the house belonging to Mrs. Margaret Kepner, directly across the street from the blast and the homes of E. E. Hanna, Frank Webber, Dr. Paul Barckhoff, Mrs. Theresa Kintner and Dr. F. T. Miles had many windows blown out.

Mysterious Call Received

It looks like that of a professional gang of bombers hired for the occasion. Police have several stories to prove that contention.

Exactly ten minutes before the bomb wrecked the home a long distance call was received at the city hall from Canton. A man in Canton, claiming to be some official, stated that a man by the name of J. E. Waltham of Detroit, was living at 16

West Side Community Club

Members of the West Side Community club are asked to meet Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Greenisen, in the Damascus rd, for a masquerade party.

It seems that the Western Union office in Canton phoned the telegram to the city hall as the office here was closed. The man by the name of Waltham who is wanted in Detroit was believed to have been a fake name until the telegram was received.

Threatening Letters

Putting the bits of evidence together, the police believe that the long distance call was a fake, because no one was found, and that it was timed so as to get all officers off the district so that the dynamiters could do their work. Evidently one of the band was stationed in Canton to do the calling while others were in hiding in the vicinity to see that no officer was near the Conrad home.

Dr. Conrad explained Thursday morning to police that he had received many threatening letters in the last two weeks. All the letters, said the prohibition agent, stated that "we will get you if you don't lay off the bootleggers."

In addition the letters warned him that he would die soon unless he withdrew his commission as a state and federal agent.

Conrad declared in an interview Thursday that he knows the identity of the writers of the letters and knows where they live. In addition he said that they were being watched.

County Offers Reward

This second bombing of a prohibition agent's home within a week has stirred the county officials to action and Thursday morning the county commissioners offered a reward of $500 for the arrest or for any information leading to the arrest of the men who did the work.

County Prosecutor Jesse Hanley and Commissioners Clerk L. H. Johnson arrived on the scene of the bombing at 10 a. m. Thursday and immediately started an official investigation of the affair.

Some county officials declared that they believe the work is one of elaborate planning and timed so as to throw all persons on the trail of the bombers into confusion. Several men who have been convicted as bootleggers were seen in public places last night before and after the time of the explosion. It is believed that they did this to throw all responsibility for the work on outside persons, and also to establish an alibi that they were not around when the deed was perpetrated.

Follow Tearing Car

After Conrad had rushed out to the street after the blast and Chief of Police Thompson was on the scene, a large touring car went past Main and Broadway at high speed and Chief Thompson jumped in the police car and followed the car to Youngstown where the trail was lost. This car is not, however, thought to have been connected in any way with the bombing.

Last Friday morning at 1:50 a. m. in a similar manner and under practically the same circumstances that attended this affair, the home of Floyd W. McKee, volunteer dry worker, was bombed and several thousand dollars damage done.

No trace of the men who did that job was found.

Chief of Police Thompson later Thursday received a telegram from the Detroit police giving the same information as the mysterious call from Canton preceding the explosion contained.

It seems that the Western Union office in Canton phoned the telegram to the city hall as the office here was closed. The man by the name of Waltham who is wanted in Detroit was believed to have been a fake name until the telegram was received.

State Questions

THREE proposed constitutional amendments will be submitted to the voters of Ohio on Nov. 6. The purpose of one is to do away with the open liability feature of the workmen's compensation law, which permits injured employees, entitled to benefits from the state fund, to sue for damages. Employers' associations and labor organizations have both endorsed this change in the law as just to all concerned.

Another amendment seeks to eliminate the words "white male" from the section of the state constitution prescribing the qualifications of an elector. The enfranchisement of negroes and the granting of suffrage to women by federal authority supersede this ancient restriction and make its retention in the Ohio constitution an anachronism and an absurdity, of no effect whatsoever.

The third amendment would permit the secretary of state to advertise through the regular channels measures to be submitted to the electorate, instead of circulating "publicity pamphlets." Secretary of State Brown urges the ratification of this amendment as an economy measure.

The voters of Ohio also will pass upon three proposed laws on Nov. 6, the referred Taft and Albaugh tax laws and the initiated old age pension law. The two tax laws, for which a vigorous and rather impressive campaign is being made, are obliged to encounter the opposition of those who are against further increases in taxation in the cities without specific authorization of the voters, those who believe the somewhat shattered Smith tax limitation law is still something of a safeguard to the taxpayers.

The old age pension plan, if enacted into law, would soon prove tremendously expensive to the taxpayers and, in our opinion, would do immeasurably more harm than good because it would put a premium on lack of self-reliance and thrift and tend to destroy qualities essential to personal worth and good citizenship.

Good Managers

IN Columbus a sort of civic observance is being conducted in the interest of "Management Week." The purpose of this movement is to eliminate waste from the industrial world, but the same idea is involved outside the limits of commercial and industrial life.

As a nation we must plead guilty to being wasteful. The average family, for example, throws away in the course of a week's time sufficient food to keep another family in fairly good circumstances. This is true, too, despite the high costs of living which obtain in America at present.

The next time you sit down to a meal at home suppose you appraise the "leavings" and see for yourself how good management, studiously followed, could bring about savings in the home. A good manager, either in the shop or in the kitchen, is a valuable asset. He or she pays for himself or herself many times over in the course of a year's time.

We have grown careless of the way we provision our tables and provide for our commercial and industrial establishments. A nail or two may seem inconsequential to the average shop man, but if every employee were as negligent as some the one item of waste in mills would be surprisingly impressive. The same is true in cooking. Waste is that which is useful, but which is disregarded despite this fact.

A New Element.

The teacher was piloting a class in general science through one of the early lessons in the textbook.

"What were the four elements," she asked, "into which the ancients divided all natural objects? William, you may answer."

"Earth," began William slowly.

"Earth—and—and—air—let's see, there was earth and air and—water—and—and—"

"Well, well," said the teacher briskly, "what causes more accidents than anything else?"

"Automobiles," cried William, grateful for the teacher's help.—Youth's Companion.

THAT TENDENCY TOWARD GOUT

Perhaps one of your parents besides the good things passed on to you, bequeathed you also a tendency toward gout.

Any little straying away from the straight and narrow path of an ordinary diet, has brought upon you the terrible symptoms of gout. Perhaps it is just in your big toe, as it joins the bone on sole of the region. You see the nerves in the region get actually inflamed just like the nerve in a tooth, so you can understand the pain all right.

It may of course attack other joints of foot and hands, or even the larger joints.

Now while there are many arguments as to whether it is an excess of uric acid in the blood that causes the trouble, or whether it is simply that the kidneys do not throw off as much as they should, these need not concern you.

The thing that does concern you is that a part of your body is not doing its work properly. That part is the kidneys.

Those kidneys of yours have inherited a certain weakness. That weakness is in their lack of ability to handle blood rich in the products or wastes from meat, particularly the glandular meats such as liver, kidney, sweetbreads and so forth.

And what about the treatment?

Well, if you do not give the kidneys too much work to do they will throw off the wastes without any trouble. Your first thought then, is not the total elimination of meat, but taking a very small quantity daily, particularly if you are lying in the house getting no exercise.

The idea that there should be a starvation diet is wrong. You need good, well cooked, nourishing food. Eggs are absolutely safe and keep up the strength.

Plenty of ordinary plain water is advisable always. So your first thought is food. Good food, but with the meat at a minimum.

And the next step?

Outdoor exercise whenever and wherever possible.

Between the attacks try and build up a body, including kidneys, that will give the old gout a stiff argument. When you feel the attack coming on, your first thought, as always, is to get the intestine flushed out. It is a good start for the battle.

Exercise that induces perspiration is perhaps your most valuable aid in preventing attacks of gout.

TAFT TAX CODE UP TO VOTERS

Establishes Pay-as-You-Go Plan in Buckeye State.

ALSO CREATES BUDGET SYSTEM

Columbus, O. — (Special.) — The Taft tax code will be submitted for the approval of the voters at the November election. This code was adopted by the legislature by an overwhelming majority after a most extensive consideration and public discussion, and passed again over Governor Donahay's veto.

The new law provides a complete system of finance for county, city and school in place of the present hodge-podge of tax laws and exceptions. Its chief purpose is to put our local government on a pay-as-you-go basis. The old tax levy law limited taxes for a few years, but did nothing to limit expense. Money was borrowed even to pay current expenses, more than $20,000,000 in Cleveland and Cincinnati alone, and every possible repair and improvement was paid for by bond issue. From 1911 to 1922 public debt increased from $188,000,000 to $679,000,000, and it is still going on. Our high tax rate today is largely due to the fact that enough revenues were never supplied to pay current expenses.

The Budget System.

The Taft law limits expense. It establishes the first real budget system for local government, similar to that now established in national and state government. The budget commission fixes the total amount which may be spent, instead of merely fixing taxes, as under the old law. It may reduce the budget below the limits, where the full amount is not required. It must hold public hearings, and publish its reports in the news papers. After the budget is fixed, it is unlawful to appropriate in excess of the budget. In every respect this law attempts to hold expenses down to those which are absolutely needed for local government.

Limits Bond Issues.

The Taft law completes our system of bond limitations and thus limits debt charges, for the only time such charges can be limited is at the time the bonds are issued. All important bond issues must be submitted to vote and can only be carried by 60 per cent of those voting on the question. The ballot on all such bond issues carries on its face the amount of the extra levy required to pay off the bonds, so that the voters may realize they are not voting them selves a gift.

Rate Limitations.

At the same time the law aims to provide adequate revenues for current expenses. It establishes a limit of 34 mills outside of cities and villages, reducible by the budget commission to 8 mills, and 17 mills within municipalities, reducible by the budget commission to 12 mills. The difference is made because the city tax pays for police and fire protection, free hospital service, street lighting, street cleaning and many other services which the farmer does not get. This limit is not in excess of the money actually spent today for the current expenses of cities, counties and schools in nearly every important city in the state. If less is required and any intelligent public opinion exists in the district, the budget commission will allow less. These limits represent a decrease in the rural districts. In cities there may be a slight increase, approximately one mill, but so also may there be an increase under the provisions of the present law. In fact, under the present law there are so many exceptions, and other exceptions sure to follow, that increase is certain.

Existing debt charges inside the present limit remain inside the new limit. Future debt charges are excluded, as are nearly all debt charges in the city today. The only result of passing debt charges within the limit under the old law was to reduce the amount of money available for current expenses, force the borrowing of money for deficiencies, and the piling up of more debt, which after all was finally excluded from the limits in 1920. The only time debt can be limited is at the time the debt is incurred.

Home Rule in Taxation.

The act provides home rule in taxation because each county may adjust the system to its particular needs, instead of having every rate arbitrarily determined in Columbus by a legislature which makes the same rule for city and country. The urban county is a different kind of organization from the rural county in Ohio, and the only way we can assure home rule is to leave some discretion to the local authorities.

The state association of real estate boards openly stated that their chief purpose is to oppose any remedy for our tax problems until the people adopt classification. This is certainly a dog-in-the-manger policy. This particular bill has nothing to do with classification, which may be secured next year and may not be secured for many years to come. Its purpose is to get the best possible system under our existing constitution.

The saw-horse has contributed more to the good of mankind than the race horse.

Scientist Envisions Life In Great City 100 Year Hence; 1923 To Be "Jest" In Future

BY PROF. A. M. LOW

London, Oct. 25.—When we talk about a century we are apt to do so very respectfully, for it seems to represent such a long period of time. And yet, of course, from the scientific point of view, a century is a mere flash in the pan—a matter of a few seconds in the life of the world.

What developments are likely to take place in "the few seconds" that separate us today from the year 2023? Speculations on the subject are fascinating.

It is too much to suppose that the business man who is fond of saying "time is money" will not be content to spend more than half his life eating, traveling, playing and sleeping. The business man who economizes in these respects will be more successful, according to his dictum, and therefore this type must develop.

Travel Speeded Up.
Travel, of course will be speeded up enormously within the next century, and there is nothing against reducing our sleep ration, while as to food the changes taking place are obvious. The "three bottle" man has gone long ago, and the business man who until only a few years ago had to eat big dinners with his friends cheerfully relies now on sandwiches. No doubt in a hundred years' time food tablets at the office will be regarded as ample for his needs.

The business man who says time is money certainly wastes a lot of it under present conditions. Even when using the telephone he merely makes appointments. He feels that he cannot get his personality over the wire.

See Over Phone.
In a hundred years' time he will be able to chat in comfort over a telephone that can be used in his car, his house, or his train. He will not hear a squeaky voice saying "What?" every few minutes.

Probably it will be possible for him to see the person to whom he is talking, and if he desires to make notes they will be read immediately in a book situated miles away.

By that time play will be regarded, not as a time of golf during business hours, but as an intelligent interest in the work of others.

In a hundred years' time the raising of huge sums of money to send people to throw javelins in so-called international games will be looked upon as futile. Bodily strength over the limits necessary to support our brains will most certainly be at a discount; we shall leave muscle to monkeys!

Our streets will gradually be come altered. London traffic will be controlled on special roads. We shall need underground garages, and instead of dragging ourselves along pavements we shall expect at least a moving stairway to our favorite shops.

A really large main thoroughfare will most likely be covered in.

Will Be Weaker

In the years to come we shall not be able to stand severe exposure to the elements, and doubtless even naval officers will be wearing glasses. An air service will land people from all parts of the world not at some point six miles away from the city, but straight on to the top of a hotel in a roofed arcade street.

The streets will be pleasant, well lit and clean. The waste caused by fog will be overcome; throwing down of dirt will be forbidden, and so too will all kinds of noise.

Houses will have ceased to be cold and miserable, for mankind will each succeeding year demands more comfort, even if it is only a wind-screen on a motorbus.

We shall have electrical power for all kinds of purposes distributed from large central stations. Our clothes will take less than half an hour to put on, and they may be electrically warmed. Public clocks and probably our watches will be kept in time by wireless, and by the same agency we shall be housed at what ever hour we desire to get up.

All Closed Cars

Motor cars will all be enclosed and by a motor device may pick up their power from government stations. The speed of tube trains will be increased, while airplanes will be so much quicker that our efforts of today will seem like those of the old stage coach.

To be influenced by a passion for the same pursuits, and to have similar dislikes is the rational groundwork of lasting friendship.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS

is often caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound, or imperfect hearing. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE will do what we claim for it—rid your system of Catarrh or Deafness caused by Catarrh. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over Forty Years. Sold by all druggists.

Ground Connection Uses Old Material

Eight Stranded Wires Ob- tained by Untwisting a Copper Lightning Rod.

This novel ground connection embodies a clever idea to make use of old material in a new way. The woven or twisted copper lightning rod is usually made up of about thirty-two No. 17 wires twisted in groups of four, first. When untwisted we have eight stranded wires. To the end of each attach the carbon from an old dry cell

Use of Dry Cell Rods.

—by soldering, preferably. The eight terminals are then spread out in fan fashion, as shown, and buried in the earth.

If the ground is not hard a good way to place them is as follows:

Untwist the lightning rod for six or seven feet. Then take a three-quarter-inch pipe and drive it down for a distance of six feet. Pull it out and the carbon can then be pushed in. By keeping the holes close together at the top the ground wire can go down to the surface of the earth before being spread, thus making a more solid job, less liable to be broken or pulled out of place.

Small Tube Adapter to Fit Standard Socket

Did you ever want to use a Westinghouse "WD-11" tube on another set than the "Aerola, Sr.?" It will not fit any socket you can buy and supply houses want $1.25 to $1.50 for an adapter which looks like a makeshift at best.

Try this: It makes a good looking job and works as well as it looks.

Break up any old burned-out detector or amplifier tube. All you need is the brass tube of the base. Try not to burr this and do not remove, or damage, the little lug or pin on the side which is used to lock the tube in the socket.

Fitting this standard base over the smaller base of the other tube you will find leaves a space between them of about one-sixteenth inch all around. Wrap a strip of cardboard or blotter (one-half inch wide is plenty) around the upper part of the base of the small tube so as to hold it in the center of the standard base. Put them together again and place in the socket you propose to use, being sure lug is in "locked" position. Push down bulb until all contacts press firmly on socket contacts and mark on small base where top of large base comes to. Turn whole thing upside down and turn bulb until bulb contacts are directly over socket contacts, marking both bases with a line to show relative position of the two bases.

Take out of socket and fill space between the two bases with a thick paste made of plaster of paris and water. Fill the large base up flush to the bottom with the plaster. Now remove cardboard or blotter from the top and fill the resulting space with plaster. After the plaster has stood about an hour it will have hardened somewhat and you can clean off the surplus plaster without danger of changing the relative positions of the two bases. After this is done, stand in a safe place over night.

Neat and Efficient

Lead-In Insulator

A piece of conduit 3/4-inch longer than the wall is thick and two condulets make a very neat and efficient lead-in insulator. The diagram is self-explanatory.

Loud-Speaker War.

Out in Sierra Madre, the radio fans and the nonradio fans are having a scrap over the loud-speaker "nuisance." Seems the town is infested with them, and the fans who like to keep them running are organizing to prevent the passage of any contrary ordinance.

PLANTS POLLUTE COUNTY STREAMS

According to a report issued by State Game Warden J. T. Travis, it is alleged that the waters of Beaver creek, which flows through Lisbon, are being polluted by the drainage from the mill at Salem, the McKee Iron company at Leetonia, the Keystone Fire Clay company and the National Brass & Copper Co. plants at Lisbon.

The north fork of Beaver creek is also alleged to be polluted by an oil pumping station at Negley and the Y. & O. power house at West Point.

is said to be polluting the south fork of Beaver creek at West Point. This pollution is said to be killing the fish in the streams mentioned.

AGE OF LOUD SPEAKERS HERE

Results in Straining of Vocal Chords and Throat Troubles, Says a Music Teacher.

A music teacher remarked the other day that more and more people were going to her for voice production, on the advice of a doctor, who rightly said that their throat troubles were merely the result of straining their vocal chords, says London Answers.

"We belong to an age of loud speakers," she said smilingly. "Particularly women and girls talk much more loudly than ever before. The restless age in which we live is responsible, and this modern shouting accounts for the number of strained throats about."

Her statement raises a very interesting point, because we all certainly find that the voice raised the loudest usually gets home first! The sweet whispering prunes and prisms of a hundred years ago won't get us a telephone call, or a bun in a tea shop, or a jumper at a sale, or tell us the way to Putney bridge.

The man or woman who whispers in these crowded days never gets very far.

One man said, quite seriously, the other day, that he thought modern dance music had a great deal to do with people's strident tones. And there certainly is something in that, too.

Occasionally, after all the harsh voices some one comes to town with a soft, crooning speaking voice. You can spot such a man or woman at once, and know, too, that they found their soothing tones in the heart of the country. And you know as well that, if they live in a big city for long, they will be forced to shout—as we all do—for our daily bread!

Save Your Nails and Tacks.

When you open boxes, take up carpets, or do anything that produces a crop of bent nails or useless tacks, save them. Then, the next time you report or transplant flowers, scatter the nails and tacks through the bottom layer of the soil, set in the flowers or plants, and fill the pot with rich loam. When you water the plants the nails will rust; the product of this oxidation will enrich the soil remarkably. You will be agreeably surprised with the strong and beautiful growth of the plants.

PRESENT POLICY TO BE CONTINUED

Highway Director Boulay Replies to Recent Criticism.

DEFENDS GRAVEL ROAD WORK

Ohio Coal Production Figures Made Public by Federal Geological Survey—Attorney General Crabbe May Enter Race for Subnational Nomination—Motor Bus Regulations to Be Rigidly Enforced.

Columbus, Oct. 25 — A statement issued by Louis A. Boulay, chief of the department of highways and public works, is to the effect that the progressive construction of Ohio roads which follows the practice of first building serviceable highways and then making them better as funds are available will be continued "despite political criticism." The statement is in reply to a recent attack made on the department by Charles W. Montgomery, chairman of the Republican state central committee, in which the department was charged with camouflage and deception in connection with statements concerning its policy.

Ohio's roads are being made passable, "not by the use of gravel in filling holes," it is emphasized in answer to such a charge. About 14 miles of the Three C's highway in Warren county are cited to refute such argument. "That road is 18 to 20 feet wide, can be traveled in an automobile without perceptible jar at the maximum speed permitted by law," and the cost per mile, including ditching and repairs to bridges, has been less than $1,600 per mile, the statement avers.

Not one cent of money derived from the sale of automobile licenses has been assigned to use on traffic boulevards and stone type of road construction since July 1, although the director is so authorized to use the fund. It is further pointed out by Mr. Boulay, twenty counties have agreed to co-operate with the department in this type of road construction and 177 miles are being built and arrangements have been made for about 167 additional miles.

In pointing out that department engineers do not claim the gravel construction is as high-class or desirable in every respect as the two Warren county roads that it connects, the statement contends that the traveling public is being given a good serviceable road at an exceedingly low cost in comparison. The one road which is now being finished costs $40,000 a mile, while the one at the other end of the 18-mile stretch cost $53,000 per mile last year, it is stated.

Until such time as the county and state can finance a higher type of improvement, the money spent in this way is not wasted as the construction can be utilized as a foundation for a more permanent type of pavement that will follow in the future, the director further states.

Denying a statement credited to him during the legislative session at Cincinnati, a few weeks ago, Attorney General C. C. Crabbe indicated that he may be a candidate for nomination for governor. In a statement authorized by him Crabbe said he may enter the race for the Republican nomination for governor "if indications should point to the renomination of Governor Donahey by the Democrats and if radical changes in the administration of the welfare and securities departments are not made."

While at Cincinnati with the legislators, the attorney general was quoted as saying that he would not be a candidate for governor. This he denied yesterday with emphasis.

The United States geological survey has just made public Ohio coal production figures for the calendar year 1922. The report shows that the Ohio output last year totaled 26,933,791 tons, worth $87,656,000, or an average value of $3.23 per ton.

Belmont county led all the other counties, with a production of 6,759,817 tons, worth $20,756,000, or $3.07 per ton. Medina county coal brought the highest price per ton and Lawrence county coal the lowest price.

The first things to be done will be to proceed against drivers who fail to make the crossing stops. The regulations provide buses must stop not more than 75 feet from crossings and that the driver must look in each direction up the track before proceeding. Failure to do so is punishable by fine up to $1,000 or one year's imprisonment, or both.

Secretary James Dugan of the utilities commission said heavy penalties will be asked against drivers arrested for violations. Numerous complaints already have been received by the commission that buses are ignoring the stopping rule.

The conference of the northeast section of the Ohio State Federation of Women's clubs, meeting at Cleveland, plans to bring about the following reforms: Cheaper movies, a uniform marriage and divorce law, protection of national parks, a constitutional amendment against child labor, selection of immigrants at the point of embarkation, and taking the welfare department out of politics.

Mrs. Prentice E. Rood, Toledo, former welfare director, discussed the dismissal of Mrs. Mae E. Stannard as matron of the Delaware home during the sessions. "The affair disgraced Ohio in the eyes of the nation," she said.

Construction of a vacation home for disabled veterans of all wars was approved.

Of six proposals to be submitted to the voters of Ohio at the November election, the Ohio State Grange and the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation recommended adoption of two, oppose one and remain neutral on three. The recommendations of the two organizations was announced by a joint committee composed of L. B. Palmer and M. D. Lincoln, president and secretary of the Farm Bureau Federation, and Harry A. Caton, W. G. Vandenberg and C. A. Dyer, master, secretary and chairman of the executive committee, respectively, of the State Grange.

Proposals whose adoption is recommended are the workmen's compensation amendment to the constitution and the amendment authorizing publication in newspapers of proposed laws or constitutional amendments. The proposed old age pension law is opposed.

No recommendation, either for or against, is made on the Taft and Albaugh taxation laws and the amendment to take the words "white male" out of the constitutional section fixing qualifications of voters.

Former Governor Harry L. Davis, in speaking at the annual banquet of the Marion County Republican club, branded as false "the assertion of members of the state administration that Joseph Wylie, police murderer, now serving sentence in the Ohio penitentiary, had been previously employed by former State Highway Director Leon Herrick as a chauffeur."

The assertion, according to the former governor, is a "coarse attempt to trump up an alibi for the present administration's policy of allowing murderers and other serious criminals to escape punishment by placing them on the outside on soft jobs where they can mingle with law-abiding citizens."

"The fact is that during my administration no prisoner was allowed to spend a night outside the prison walls unless he was given special permission due to either serious illness or death in his family, and in these cases he was given special permission to go to his home on a leave of absence with a definite time set for his return," Mr. Davis said.

Senator Royal S. Copeland of New York, in an address before the Ohio Building Association league here, urged an attempt at economic agreement through a world-wide economic conference. "The most bitter opponent of the league of nations can not object to the consideration of a plan for the economic rehabilitation of the world," the senator declared, adding that the most ardent supporters of the league, after these years of deferred hope and endless disappointment, can not object to a brief departure from the original program.

The speaker pointed out that real prosperity can not come until business in Europe is rehabilitated, thus creating a market for our surplus products.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Dissolved and the Rheumatic Pain Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours

All druggists and every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer in this vicinity that if a full pint bottle of ALLENRHU, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenrhru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished even in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless.

Allenrhru relieves at once. Immediately after you start to take it the good work begins. It searches out the uric acid deposits, dissolves the secretions and drives rheumatic poison out of the body through the kidneys and bowels.

It's marvelous how quickly it acts. Blessed relief often comes in two days and even in cases where the suffering is most painful all traces disappear in a few days.

Mr. James H. Allen the discoverer of ALLENRHU, who for many years suffered the tortments of acute rheumatism desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless ALLENRHU decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance.

Suffering of a Quarter Century Quickly Relieved by Nerv-Worth

Weak Virginian Tells Interesting Story.

"I suffered 25 years with stomach trouble and nervousness," said L. E. Ferguson, Route 2, Clarkburg, W. Va., in a letter written some time ago, and he continues, "I had pains in my stomach, back and side, and my circulation was poor. I got no sleep and was as tired in the morning when I got up as when I went to bed. I became restless and despondent. I had doctor after doctor and spent lots of money, but my food would not digest and I was always full of gases. Since taking Nerv-Worth, my condition is a great deal better in every way. I am feeling good, sleeping fine, my food digests, and the gases are gone. My whole general condition is much improved and I certainly recommend Nerv-Worth to my friends." If it's stomach trouble you have, the above statement proves to you that Nerv-Worth is the medicine you want. Remember if your first bottle is not satisfactory, your druggist is authorized to refund your money. Sold by all leading druggists everywhere.

CROSS MET TEST IN JAPAN FUND DRIVE

Spirit of Service Demonstrated in Readiness for Nationwide Activity.

When President Coolidge by proclamation designated the American Red Cross as the medium through which contributions for relief of the Japanese earthquake sufferers should flow the President's desire came as an order to the Red Cross. Immediately the entire machinery of the organization was put in motion and within 24 hours the fund campaign was moving with vigor in every part of the country.

This emergency test demonstrated the peacetime readiness of the Red Cross to cope with stupendous tasks in behalf of humanity. Within a month it had collected upwards of $10,250,000 in contributions, landed ten cargoes of supplies at Japanese ports and was keeping pace with relief requirements—all without a single dollar of the fund being spent for administration.

President Coolidge, in expressing his thanks to the people, said: "When the news of the tragedy in Japan first reached us, the American Red Cross pursuant to a proclamation, asked the country for $5,000,000 to meet the great emergency. The answer to this appeal was prompt and generous; in less than two weeks a sum far in excess of the original goal was given."

The work of the Red Cross for Japan is expected to influence a very large enrollment of new recruits during the Roll Call, which starts Armistice Day.

Red Cross First Aid Standards Adopted In Great Industries

First aid in an emergency which assures the injured competent attention until the doctor arrives is making marked headway through the work of the Chapters of the American Red Cross. In populous centers 314 chapters conduct first aid classes and last year awarded 9,500 certificates to students. Eight big telephone companies have enlisted their workers in first aid classes, police and fire departments in large cities are making the course compulsory in their training schools, and through colleges and high schools large groups of students receive instruction. The Red Cross also gives this course through Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Y. M. C. A. and similar organizations, and its standard methods have been adopted by railroads, electric and gas companies, mines and in the metal industries. The aim of this Red Cross service is to cut down radically the average of 60,000 accidental deaths per year in the United States.

"Our country could secure no higher commendation, no greater place in history, than to have it correctly said that the Red Cross is truly American,"—President Coolidge.

Every day is a better one to the man and woman stimulated by the Red Cross spirit. Join now for happiness.

MASSILLON WILL PLAY IN SALEM SUNDAY

Bringing with them the reputation of being one of the best teams in the lightweight professional division in this part of the state, the Massillon Pan Handlers, smarting under the tie game with the Schafer Independents last Sunday at Massillon, are scheduled to meet the Salem team at Centennial park at 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

Manager Holland Webster of the Independents arranged the game following the fierce struggle at Massillon which was called by Massillon scribes as "the best game of the season."

The Independents, with a fine record behind them, will go into the...

FIVE LEADERS IN OHIO CONFERENCE RACE SHOULD WIN

Oberlin And Ohio Wesleyan
Play Intersectional Games Saturday.

Cleveland, Oct. 25.—Only an act of Providence or another constitutional amendment should depose the five leaders in the Ohio conference football race in the coming Saturday's games. Last week's setback of Western Reserve changed the personnel of the undefeated teams by the dropping of the Pioneers and adding Mt. Union. Instead, otherwise, Wooster, Ohio Wesleyan, Denison and St. Xavier complete the 1,000 per cent quintet.

Wooster with three wins to its credit is scheduled to meet Cincinnati at Cincinnati. Cincinnati has only the off-chance to win.

Showing remarkable attacking strength against Kenyon, whose battered team made a good fight throughout the game, Mt. Union shapes up more and more like a championship contender. This week the Mount's meet Akron at Akron.

The third leader which is favored to win is Denison scheduled to meet Miami at a neutral point, Dayton. This traditional fight is particularly interesting this year because of the narrow escape Denison had last year, barely defeating Miami.

Ohio Wesleyan at Colgate. Western Reserve, after losing to Ohio Northern in the last quarter should have little trouble with Ohio University in Friday's game at Athens.

All but annihilated by Wooster, Case hopes for a comeback against Otterbein in Saturday's clash at Cleveland. Otterbein has won two conference games.

Wittenberg, having lost the Stadium dedicatory game plans to lose the jinx in the game with Kenyon at Springfield Saturday.

Muskingum meets Heidelberg at Tiffin and Ohio Northern plays case win-Wallace.

Having defeated Wittenberg last week, and spurred on to greater conquests, Coach Gauthier's Ohio Wesleyan eleven plays Colgate at Utica, Colgate, suffering heavily through injuries in the Ohio State tie, a few weeks ago, was rather badly battered again by Cornell, when the Ithacans defeated the Hamilton team last week. However the easterners should win but not by a big score.

In another intersectional game, Oberlin meets Amherst at Amherst, Mass. Last year the Congregationalists nosed out the easterners by a single touchdown in an otherwise scoreless game. This year Oberlin is not quite so strong, and the Massachusetts eleven bent on revenge.

Carroll of Cleveland should have little trouble with West Virginia Wesleyan in Saturday's game at Cleveland.

BUCKEYES FACING CRITICAL CONTEST

Columbus, Oct. 25.—Their backs literally to the wall known as the Ohio State football players are facing the critical point of their season in the Iowa game to be played Saturday afternoon in the stadium. The defeat at the hands of Michigan was more than a disappointment to the Buckeyes but it did not dishearten them.

Iowa is bringing an eleven fully as strong as the championship team of last year, according to Walter Eschman, Ohio State scout, who looked the Hawkeyes over in two games. The return of Leland Parkin, star quarterback, to active duty strengthens the visitors.

Ohio State followers have stuck...

loyalty to the team in spite of the Michigan defeat. Ticket orders received in the mail are heavier than usual. There is every indication that the Saturday throng will reach the 40,000 figure. (The Iowa game is one of the two at home Big Ten attractions of the year as well as the annual "Dad's Day" game.)

Using water power to provide the electricity, Bavarian radio interests are planning to extend antennae between two high Alpine peaks for a high power station.

PADLOCK LAW MAY BE INVOKED

Donahey Would Close Wet Places in Ohio Cities.

TO CONFER WITH McDONALD

Governor Would Find Out Where Ohio's Enforcement Work Can Be Improved—Attorney General
Crabbe Takes Exception to Director Locher's Denial—Line on Coming Municipal Elections in Ohio.

Columbus, Oct. 23.—Home from the conference of governors on prohibition enforcement called by President Coolidge, Governor Donahey is expected to hold a parley with State Prohibition Commissioner McDonald, at which the latter will be asked to tell the governor just where Ohio's enforcement work can be improved and what the state prohibition department has to recommend. Conferences with county and city officials, designed to secure better co-operation from these authorities, may follow Donahey's discussion with McDonald. If these conferences are held, the chances are that the governor will deliver an ultimatum that these officers must either enforce the law or answer directly to him. Donahey's statement last week indicated that he may also take drastic action to stop "commercialized enforcement" by local dry agents who operate on a "fee splitting" basis.

To meet the situation in larger cities, where McDonald has complained of lack of co-operation by municipal authorities, it is predicted Donahey will direct immediate resort to the "padlock" law and instruct the state dry agents to start proceedings to close every place where the law is violated and, as the law permits, keep them closed for a year.

As a sequel to the white house conference, Governor Donahey is reported to be in accord with President Coolidge's plans for enforcement of the dry laws. One report from the national capital has the governor saying that if the presidential candidates were Coolidge and Al Smith, wet Democratic governor of New York, he (Donahey) would vote for Coolidge.

Attorney General Crabbe has taken exception to Commerce Director Cyrus Locher's denial that the state securities department certificated any Hollings company stock after Locher took office as head of the commerce department. Mr. Locher last week stated that he was confirmed as commerce director by the state senate late on Jan. 16, last. Last certification of any Hollings' subsidiary company stock, according to the records, he said, was Jan. 16, prior to taking his office.

Attorney General Crabbe in a statement said: "Since Mr. Locher has denied that he was in office performing his official duties until late in the evening Jan. 16, my answer is that Mr. Locher drew a voucher in payment for services as head of this department on Jan. 15, amounting to $5417, being voucher No. 120,549. If Mr. Locher was not on the payroll prior to Jan. 16, he has drawn pay to which he was not entitled and should refund the same to the state."

A survey of the state shows that the municipal elections in November will be noteworthy for the appearance of independent candidates for major offices in the more important cities.

The Ku Klux Klan is likely to be a factor in several municipalities. In Akron, Fred Yoos, who says he is a former official of the local Klan, is running for mayor on an anti-Klan platform. In some cities the independent candidates have made public declarations that they do not belong to the Klan and are not endorsed by it.

In Columbus there are four candidates for mayor on the nonpartisan ticket. These are James J. Thomas, present incumbent, Randolph Walton, John T. Adams and Wyatt L. Millikin. Thomas has been endorsed by the Republican city organization and Millikin by the Democratic. Walton is making his fight on an anti-Klan platform.

There are six candidates for mayor at Youngstown, one of whom, Charles Scheible, has been endorsed by the Ku Klux Klan. W. J. Williams, another candidate for mayor and known as the "father" of Youngstown's new charter and anti-Klan, has asserted that the "Klan issue" has been forced upon the six candidates.

In Cleveland the big issue centers around the selection of a city manager. That plan of government goes into effect Jan. 1. Council will choose the municipal head and 25 members of that body from four districts will be elected in November. Republicans and Democrats are making slates for councilmanic candidates. No major offices are to be voted upon in Cincinnati.

Interest at Hamilton is centered on three candidates for mayor, Harry J. Koehler, Jr., Democrat, incumbent; Howard E. Kelly, Republican, and Fred A. Hinkel, Independent. All three have been in former contests.

Persons who want anything know that The News is the Want Medium in this vicinity. So read it.

For the office. Kelly was defeated two years ago by less than 300 votes in a three-cornered race. Mayor John D. McBride, Democrat, is seeking a third term as Warren's chief executive and is being opposed by J. H. Marshall, who is said to head a "Klan ticket." There is one woman candidate for city auditor. At Canton, the race for mayor will be between C. C. Curtis, Republican, and H. August Smith, Democrat. Curtis is seeking re-election.

There are three candidates for mayor of Toledo. Mayor Bernard F. Brough, who is seeking re-election, is citing the record of his administration; Vice Mayor Ed Cullen is running on a nonpartisan platform, and Solon T. Klotz is running on a strict Socialist platform. At Findlay two independent candidates for mayor are in the race, in addition to the two old-line party candidates. William M. Sprague, who, two years ago, was defeated for a second term after serving twice as mayor, is the Democratic candidate in the mayoralty race at Marietta. John M. Starling, former school principal, is the Republican candidate.

At Marion Mayor George W. Neely, Democrat, is trying for re-election. The Republican candidate is Rev. M. L. Buckley. A Republican, a Democrat and an Independent are candidates for mayor at Ironton. Herbert H. Vogt, ousted from the office of mayor of Massillon, by Governor Donahey last spring, on charges of malfeasance, will head a complete independent ticket at the November election. He will oppose Mayor M. P. L. Kirchhofer, Democrat, who was elevated to the mayorship when Vogt was removed.

Announcement was made that 15 new speakers, making a total of 53 in all, will address audiences at the two-day state-dry farmers' institutes which begin this year on Oct. 29. These sessions—the first of a series of four scheduled for every county in the state—open in Meigs, Muskingum, Noble and Guernsey counties. Other two-day sessions will follow in rapid succession up to the latter part of February. Forty-four speakers also are available to address the independent farmers' institutes which this year will probably number about 200. In keeping with the expressed intent that farmers' institutes this year should be community conventions, where men of all occupations may meet, the new speakers cover a broad field. G. Bohstedt, chief of the animal husbandry department of the Ohio experiment station, will confine himself to the field of animal husbandry. Mrs. W. H. Busic of Ashley, Delaware county, expert poultry raiser, with an income above $2,000 a year from her 150 layers, will speak both on poultry raising and on home and community problems.

A college-trained and successful farm woman, Mrs. May H. Mumaw of Hiram, Portage county, will speak on "Woman's Place in the Farm Bureau," "Keeping Abreast With Youth," and the like. E. C. Rector of Williamsport, Pickaway county, one time member of the general assembly and long a successful grain and live stock farmer, will range from talks on production to "What a Rural School Can Do."

According to a report submitted to President Thompson, the growth of the student health service department of Ohio State university since 1920-21 has been approximately 50 per cent, and the staff has not changed except for the hiring of a part-time assistant for two months last winter, during an epidemic of influenza. Last year's record showed 15,258 visits from 5,265 individuals, 4,409 men and 956 women, and less than $8,000 as the entire cost, including salaries.

"More than 1,150 visits were made to this department during the year by students, faculty members and employees for advice only," said Director H. S. Wingert, in his report. "This number should, no doubt, have been larger if many who called for advice had not turned away to give place to those suffering from more serious ailments during the months of January and February."

Dr. Wingert expressed appreciation of the co-operation of the colleges of dentistry, pharmacy, applied optics, physical education and military science, and of the state department of health laboratory, especially complimenting the pharmacy dispensary.

Itemized accounts of the number of cases of various diseases were given, from the prevalence of coryza, or a cold in the head, to the absence of mumps. The director said the campaign carried on last fall against digestive disorders had reduced the number of such disorders, but he added: "We still have entirely too much of this trouble, and until some provision is made for the inspection of eating places and the establishment of some co-operative interests between them and the students, we hardly can expect any great improvement."

With appropriate exercises, the James E. Campbell elm, planted near the north entrance to the state house grounds, was dedicated Saturday. The elm is a seedling from the Logan elm, under which Lord Dunmore's treaty with the Indians was made in October, 1774.

The meeting was opened by an invocation by Rev. Sidney E. Sweet followed by a short talk by Frank Talmadge, chairman of the Logan elm committee of the Ohio State Archaeological and Historical Society.

Junior Red Cross Spreads Good Will Throughout World

Nearly 5,000,000 pupils in the schools of America are following the standard of unselfish service as members of the American Junior Red Cross, the annual report of the American Red Cross discloses. This valiant host is represented in 125,972 school rooms of 24,289 schools throughout the United States. With a service program that is local, national and international in scope, the American Junior Red Cross is working unflinchingly for health and happiness and in the promotion of activities among boys and girls wherever there is opportunity for usefulness.

Increased activity on the part of the schools enrolled and deeper recognition by school authorities of the educational values of Junior Red Cross have been significant features of the last year. Carrying on educational and relief work in France, Poland, Austria, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Albania, Bulgaria and Rumania, the American Juniors have influenced the forming of Junior departments in the Red Cross organizations of these countries. American boys and girls wearing the "I Serve" button of the Juniors are proving apt messengers of the spirit of good will and mutual understanding through correspondence with pupils in schools scattered throughout the world. At the close of the school year in June 2,009 schools were engaged in correspondence with a like number of schools in Europe; 284 schools in our insular possessions and Alaska territory carried on an exchange of letters with schools in the United States and South Africa. In fact, nearly 2,700 schools with probably 100,000 pupils were busy in this fine act of cheerful communication, while 8,347 articles passed through National Headquarters of the Red Cross in exchanges between the interested pupils here and overseas.

An incident of the year's advance was the beginning of activity which will eventually install Junior Red Cross in the Indian schools of the United States. From every section of the country reports of the tour of the unit of crippled children with their chorus which came from the Bakule school in Prague, Czechoslovakia, to show gratitude to the American Juniors for their assistance declare that nothing since the World War has done so much to awaken the Red Cross spirit in the communities visited by the unit.

The work of the American Juniors in foreign fields is emphasized in the advancement of playgrounds, scholarships in farm, trade and other schools, community and school garden work, and donations of cash and equipment to children's organizations. In these projects $112,660.17 was spent during the last year in ten European countries, in China and in the Virgin Islands.

"It is inconceivable that the Red Cross could have come thus far only to retreat; that it could have succeeded up to the present time only to fail,"—President Coolidge.

Itemized accounts of the number of cases of various diseases were given, from the prevalence of coryza, or a cold in the head, to the absence of mumps. The director said the campaign carried on last fall against digestive disorders had reduced the number of such disorders, but he added: "We still have entirely too much of this trouble, and until some provision is made for the inspection of eating places and the establishment of some co-operative interests between them and the students, we hardly can expect any great improvement."

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse. We had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes. Use 'Mother's Friend' as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradford Regulator Co., B.A.-75, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. ## AIR SITUATION IS CAUSE OF ANXIETY

UNITED STATES FALLS BEHIND OTHER NATIONS IN MATTER OF PLANE BUILDING.

COUNTRY IS OPEN TO ATTACK

Military Organizations and Authorities Worried by the Vulnerability of the National Defense Due to Development of Aerial Warfare.

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.—The Military Order of the World War, an organization composed of American commissioned officers who took part in the great conflict, has just closed its annual convention in Washington. In its proceedings the organization laid particular stress on the necessity of an increased air service for America unless other nations are to put an end to their ambitious military plane building program.

The American Legion holds its annual convention in San Francisco the middle of October. It will urge the convocation of an international air disarmament conference. It is understood that the administration and the War department in Washington are opposed to the idea of a conference of this kind unless it is certain in advance that the other nations are likely to agree, and it is said that this today seems improbable.

The truth seems to be that the American military authorities, thinking on defense of the country in case of possible trouble, are becoming worried over the air situation.

Men interested in all kinds of airplanes for whatever purpose have just held a meeting in St. Louis. There officers of the service made statements concerning the situation in this country, and the situation in those other countries which are making special efforts to increase their air fleets believing that they will be deciding factors in another war, if it shall come.

America Falls Behind.

The whole defense situation has changed since the great war began in 1914. Then it was known, of course that airplanes would play a great part in offensives and defenses, but it was not dreamed that the day would come when flying machines would be seen in the all-in-all for war purposes. France and Great Britain have gone ahead with air preparations on a scale which is somewhat staggering. One nation seems to be building in order to keep pace with the other. Nobody knows where the thing will stop.

As things are today, the United States, while it is abreast of the times in airplane knowledge, is far behind the times in airplane equipment. The aviators of the United States are as good as those to be found anywhere in the world, but the expressed fear is that if trouble shall come the United States actually will be unable to defend itself against airplanes which would come from plane-carrying vessels of a possible enemy.

Gen. George W. Goethals, who was the chief engineer in the construction of the Panama canal, recently wrote an article on the commercial and military features of that waterway. In this article he says: "Without the canal we would be obliged to maintain two enormous fleets for naval protection; without the canal our defensive coast line would be extended down around Cape Horn."

"Recent combined naval maneuvers resulted in the theoretical destruction of the canal locks by the Pacific fleet, and both Secretary of War Weeks and Secretary of the Navy Denby called attention to the vulnerability of the canal now that aviation has taken its place as an offensive fighting arm."

National Defense Is Vulnerable.

The Washington Post, in commenting on this article, puts the air situation in just about the way that the American military and naval authorities put it. It says:

"A plain fact stares the people in the face. It is the vulnerability of the national defense, not only at Panama but on all coasts. This vulnerability results from the development of an aerial warfare."

"Foreign nations are not neglecting the new situation that confronts them, as it confronts the United States. They are readjusting their national defenses to conform to advancement in the art of war. No large nations, except the United States and China, are failing to provide defenses against an aerial attack. Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan and the smaller nations have grasped the fact that they must recast their plans for national defense."

Now, it may be that the new administration will do what the American Legion unquestionably is to ask it to do—call a conference similar to the limitation of armaments conference, for the purpose of limiting the building of airplanes. If this is not done, however, it is virtually certain that the United States, in order to insure itself against overwhelming coastal attack in the future, will be compelled to spend an enormous amount of money in the development of its air service.

Study Habits of Wild Geese.

Efforts will be made to put fifteen thousand birds on 500 wild geese and ducks at Point Barrow, northernmost Alaska, in an attempt to gain more information about the migratory habits of these birds.

THEATRES

"Where The Pavement Ends" Rex Ingram has captured in a magnificent fashion the romantic and exotic spirit of the South Seas in his latest production for Metro, "Where The Pavement Ends," which will be shown Thursday to Saturday at the High school auditorium. It is an extraordinary photoplay in every detail—beautiful in conception and execution. It is not like anything Mr. Ingram has ever done and it marks another high point in the career of this young genius of the films. To say that "Where The Pavement Ends" is Mr. Ingram's work is to say that it bears the stamp of distinction and artistic finesse. This production is certainly of the beaten track, in visual appeal as well as in story. The story tells how love came into the life of the lonely, beautiful daughter of a South Seas missionary. And it is romance supreme, amid the beauty and strangeness of the leisurely tropics where love and hate burn with consuming flame.

Film With Many Laughs Look out for "The Hottentot" if you've got a cracked lip. We dare you to sit through it and not laugh—not a smile or a titter or a chuckle, but a laugh, honest, hearty and prolonged; a laugh that breaks out, in ripples and rumbles and roars until it bursts all restraints and becomes a guffaw, plain and unashamed.

The censors ought to speak to Thomas H. Ince for putting out a picture that can spoil a man's favorite grouch. Willie Collier's stage play, from which it is taken, was funny but the picture is hilarious. It's a menace to the public gravity.

Coming Thursday and Friday at the State theater.

Alone in That Respect. A traveler in the West some years ago observed a well-executed portrait on the wall of a dark room in a cabin and asked whose picture it was. "That's my husband," said the woman of the house, carelessly. "But it is hung with fatal effect," urged the artist. "So was my husband," snapped the woman.

MUSICAL COMEDY TREAT FOR SALEM

"My China Doll," the first Metropolitan musical spectacle of the season coming to the Grand opera house tomorrow night, was reviewed last evening by the management of the Grand in Alliance and returns enthused over the remarkable attraction which is to be presented here. Of this offering Manager Rakestraw says:

"There is not a dull moment throughout the performance—it is all lights, music, dancing, novelties, a great cast with the famous dancer Barbara Bronell in the leading role, a bewitching little artist and dancer of renown. The supporting cast is excellent and the Corps de Ballet of wonderful dancers execute their novel dances fetchingly."

"The production is gorgeously mounted, beautifully costumed, with bewildering novelties and transformation after transformation of novel scenic and electrical effects."

"The tuneful score contains some 20 big hits rendered by an augmented orchestra. All in all 'My China Doll' will prove the most elaborate and entertaining musical play ever visiting this city."

Buick Leads In Volume of Sales

The motor cars exhibited at the National Automobile shows are assigned to their places by an election, in which dollars are the ballots. The honor of first place goes to that car for which purchasers have paid the largest total amount of money for the preceding twelve months, ending June 30.

At the New York Automobile Show in January, 1924, three of the divisions of General Motors will have leading places. Buick for the sixth consecutive year will have the first place. Chevrolet will have the second place, and Cadillac the sixth. The drawings for space were made at the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce in New York, October 4.
